Product Description

Versatile Deep Pour Epoxy Resin For Encapsulating And Crafting Jewelry

Quick Details Of Deep Pour Epoxy Resin:

Deep pour epoxy resin, recognized for its exceptional high viscosity, serves as a catalyst for innovative creations. Tailored for casting substantial layers exceeding typical depths, this resin enables artisans to explore uncharted creative territories. Its unique self-leveling nature ensures a flawlessly smooth finish, while its commendable UV resistance safeguards long-term clarity. Minimized bubble formation during the curing process results in creations boasting remarkable transparency. This versatile material, easily customizable through various processing techniques, grants artists the freedom to bring their distinct visions to life. Embracing eco-friendly standards, several variants support sustainable endeavors. In summary, the distinctive attributes of deep pour epoxy resin—its high viscosity, self-leveling finesse, UV resilience, bubble reduction, adaptability, and eco-friendliness—make it the top choice for pioneering and sustainable artistic endeavors.

Features Of Deep Pour Epoxy Resin:

1. Versatile for a wide array of artistic projects
2. Creating decorative pieces to encapsulating keepsakes
3. Brings depth and dimension to your creations
4. UV resistant, highest yellowing resistance
5. Self-leveling & high glossy
6. Ideal for all casting and art projects

Advantages Of Deep Pour Epoxy Resin:

Deep Pour epoxy is a two part, crystal clear deep casting resin that is design for projects that require pouring thickness exceeding 2 ". Its convenient formula requires a 2:1 ratio, which will result in stunning projects with glass like finishes. You can even pour multiple thick layers with a depth over 2 inches. Customize your crafts with vibrant colors, such as glitter, mica powder, liquid dye and more! Deep Pour epoxy resin is perfect for a variety of unique projects, from river tables, live edge tables, furniture making, flower encapsulations and embedding, service trays, and so much more!
